

Bossa Nova – klingt mega exotisch, oder? Ist es auch! Und beim ersten mal hören gar nicht so einfach. Aber keine Angst, es ist easy zu verstehen. “Bossa Nova” bedeutet “neuer Rhythmus” und ist ein cooler, entspannter Samba-Stil, der perfekt zum chillen am Strand passt. Zu unrecht wird er oft auch als Fahrstuhlmusik bezeichnet, dabei ist er in der Lage, dich in eine andere Zeit an einen anderen Ort zu beamen!

Entstanden ist Bossa Nova in Brasilien, als Musiker wie João Gilberto und Antonio Carlos Jobim auch nach Sonnenuntergang weiter jammen wollten. Die traditionelle Samba war dafür einfach zu laut. Also erfanden sie einen neuen Stil, der leiser, ruhiger und einfach mega relaxt war.

Lass uns erstmal mit ein paar Vorübungen eingrooven...

Bossa Nova – sounds super exotic, right? Well, it is! And not that easy to play. But don't worry, et's do it step-by-step.

“Bossa Nova” simply means “new rhythm,” and that's exactly what Bossa is: a cool, laid-back Samba style that's perfect for chilling on the beach. It's often unfairly labeled as elevator music, but listen closely – it has the power to transport you to another time and place!

Bossa Nova originated in Brazil when musicians like João Gilberto and Antonio Carlos Jobim wanted to keep jamming softly after sunset. Traditional Samba was just too loud for that. So they invented a new style that was softer, calmer, and just super relaxed.

Let's get into the groove with a few preliminary exercises first...
